Millington Heritage Display at St Margaret's Church

The Millington Heritage exhibition supported by 'The Heritage Fund' is now on display at St Margaret's church. This has been put together by local people gathering information from the community and researching archived references to the area. Due to limited space the display will be changed every 4-6 weeks. The new exhibition currently displayed is 'The History of Millington School' - come and discover a fascinating insight into the pupils, teachers and the 'OFSTED' reports. A second display: 'The Lost Houses of Millington' shows the changes in Millington houses over the past century.

Updates will be published regularly.

We hope that you will visit regularly to learn about the heritage of Millington. The church is open daily 10am-4pm. Visitors are encouraged to leave comments in the visitor book and help by giving details of any additional information which could be added to the records of the display.

Ancestors in Nunburnholme?

Hello and greetings from Georgia, USA. My name is Sid Chandler and I have recently become interested in locating the areas of England where my ancestors lived. I believe I have traced my mother’s family to Nunburnholme and wanted to inquire to see if you had any members of your parish that might be interested in communicating, assisting, and possibly one day meeting me when I travel there. My mother’s family name is Allison and I would happily share the information I have found with anyone who might be interested in this endeavour.

Thank you so much for any help or direction you might be able to provide. Sincerely, Sid Chandler

All Saints Church lighting and decoration project
5th August – 12th October 2019

Church Services and Coffee Morning arrangements:

- Sunday 8.00am Communion (1st & 3rd Sunday in month)
– Church Meeting Room
- Sunday 10.45am Communion – Pocklington School Chapel (Map overleaf)
- Monday Midday Prayers – Church Meeting Room
- Tuesday Coffee morning – Church Meeting Room
- Thursday 10.00am morning Service – Church Meeting Room
- Saturday Coffee morning – Church Meeting Room

During this 10 week period, there will only be access to the meeting room, kitchen, downstairs WC and Rainbow room and to no other part of the Church. Access will only be via the back door on the North side of the Church.

The office, which will be open during the normal office hours Tuesday – Friday 9am - 12 noon, will be relocated to the Rainbow room downstairs during the project

It is important and a requirement for Health and Safety reasons that no one beyond the contractors and those church officers directly involved with the project have access to the main part of the Church. There will be warning notices in place, and we ask that these instructions be adhered to.

This is an exciting project and something that has needed to be undertaken for some time. It will mean that the interior of the will be replaced.

On behalf of All Saints PCC we thank you for your patience and support during this period when we are undertaking this work, and if you have any questions please do contact the Church Wardens personally or contact the Church office.

Hilary Slow and Nigel Laws, Church Wardens

On behalf of the PCC
